You're invited to be part of the 58th M&T Bank Clothesline Festival, an event hosted by the Memorial Art Gallery which showcases New York State artists.

To those of you looking to exhibit for the first time in 2014, we look forward to receiving an application and reviewing your work.

To those of you who participated in 2013, thank you for putting on a wonderful, highly successful show and for helping us celebrate the Gallery's centennial. And thanks to all who returned your Festival surveys—your feedback is helping us make positive changes! We hope these changes (see below) will improve flow and increase sales for all exhibitors.

One important change for 2014 is that we will open early on Saturday, September 6 and offer exclusive early bird shopping for MAG members from 9:30–10 am. Our members are among the biggest Festival supporters, and we felt this would be a great way to say thank you. So our new Saturday hours will be from 9:30 am–6 pm, and Sunday will stay at 10 am–5 pm.

One question we hear a lot here in the Festival office is “Can I receive the same booth location as last year?” The answer is yes, provided we receive your completed application by the application deadline. If your application is received AFTER the deadline, we cannot guarantee your same location. (A completed application means we have received the following materials: Application, check for $25 application fee, check for booth fee, AND your emailed artwork and booth images.) Have all of these items to us by the deadline to reserve your requested booth.

Also please note: We have made a few layout changes based on exhibitor feedback, including a complete renumbering of Zone A. This means that if you are a returning exhibitor requesting your same location, your booth number may have changed. Please review the enclosed map when making your request, and rest assured that we will work with you to give you the same location or if that is not possible find a location that suits your needs.

Last year’s Festival sold out by early June, so please don’t delay sending in your application. 2014 is going to be our best year yet, and we hope that you will be a part of it.

We look forward to seeing you in September!

WHAT'S NEW IN 2014

Layout changes:
Please review the map in this application and note the following changes for 2014:
• Additional pavement booths added in Zone A
• New booth number configuration in Zone A
• 2013 Zone C West is now part of Zone D
• New Festival Saturday hours from 9:30 am–6 pm

Handicapped exhibitor parking:
If you are a handicapped exhibitor and would like to request handicapped parking, you will have two options.
• Option #1 is to request a booth in Zone A, where you can park directly behind your booth.
• Option #2 is to request a booth in Zone D, where there will be parking close to your booth.

If your application is received after both of these areas are filled, you will be able to park in one of our handicapped shuttle lots and take the shuttle to the festival. Please make sure to allow yourself plenty of time.

IMPORTANT: In order to request handicapped parking you must include your NY state handicapped parking permit number on your application and have the permit with you when you enter the grounds—no exceptions.

Attention exhibitors with tents:
While we are hoping for sunny skies, we need your help keeping the Festival safe in the unlikely event of inclement weather. We require all booths on pavement or brick to be weighted down; and that ALL grass booths be staked, weighted or tied down as well.

More information will be included with your booth assignment packet.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Digital please! In response to artist surveys, the Gallery now juries Festival applications using digital technology ONLY. Please email recent digital images (no CDs, please) that show the style and quality of your current work and one image of your current booth display. If you do not have an image of your booth setup, please contact us by email for options. For more information regarding your digital submissions, please see the attached application or visit clothesline.rochester.edu.

Remember, all jurying is anonymous—exhibitors are accepted solely on the basis of the images supplied.

Space preferences: When filling out your application, keep in mind that some zones include both pavement and grass locations. If you have a preference, please note on your application and we’ll do our best to accommodate you.

Corner spaces: Corner spaces are an additional $50, available on a first come, first served basis. Requests for corners MUST be submitted by the March 21 deadline; late requests will not be honored. If you had a corner space last year, you are not guaranteed a corner this year.

Electronic acceptance notification: Again this year we will send acceptance notifications electronically; watch for yours via email in early April. Space assignments and other pertinent information will go out in June via US mail. In order to be notified of your acceptance, you must provide a valid email address. (See calendar on next page.) The list of accepted artists will be also be posted on our website on April 18.

Merit awards: Again this year, ten artists will receive awards recognizing outstanding creativity, quality of execution and display presentation.

Congratulations to last year’s winners: Eve Botelho of Rochester, fiber; Julie Crosby of Trumansburg, ceramics; Connie Ehindero of Rochester, painting; Lorelei Hamm of Brooklyn, jewelry; Hodaka Hasebe of Pittsford (pictured), ceramics; Steven Lee-Davis of Rochester, printmaking; James H. Miller & Christie Schorf-Miller of Mt. Vision, mixed media; Kevin Schoonover of Geneva, photography; Scott Sober of Scottsville, wood; and Shauna Walsh of DeRuyter, glass.

Judging will begin on Saturday morning. At some time during the day, one of our judges will come into your booth. The judge will be discreet and if you are with clients you may not notice that you have been judged.

If you are a past winner of three or more Merit Awards, you are ineligible for this year’s awards. You do, however, receive a lifetime waiver of the Clothesline application fee, and 2013 winners will receive free booths at the 2014 Festival.
CLOTHESLINE FESTIVAL
September 6 & 7, 2014 at the Memorial Art Gallery
clothesline.rochester.edu
The M&T Bank Clothesline Festival is celebrating 58 years as one of the largest fine art and crafts festivals in New York state. Artists exhibit and sell their original works at this two-day event on the grounds of the Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester. All proceeds support Gallery exhibitions, events and programs.

For more information visit clothesline.rochester.edu.

Residency requirement
The Clothesline Festival is open to all New York state artists. Artists must have a valid New York state mailing address.

Criteria for eligibility
The Memorial Art Gallery places a high value on fine art and craft created by hand and requires that all participating Clothesline artists submit work that:

- shows vision, imagination and originality.
- is of professional quality, expertly executed without technical faults.

Not allowed: work made from commercial kits, patterns, stencils or molds; buy and sell items; imported items; personal care items; edible items; candles; plants; flowers (fresh, dried, silk); beaded jewelry made solely by restringing commercially produced or purchased beads. Reproductions are limited to 30% of booth display.

Application requirements
In keeping with the Memorial Art Gallery’s commitment to present a high standard show with quality work, all entrants (except past Merit Award winners) will be juried. Jurors do not provide individual critiques; all decisions are final.

Application and space rental fees
- non-refundable application fee is $25 for all applicants (waived for winners of 3+ Clothesline Merit Awards)
- fee for standard booth (10’ by 10’) is $285; standard corner booth is $335
- fee for double booth (20’ by 10’) is $570; double corner booth is $620

Shared booth requests
Booth sharing is allowed—up to three artists per booth. Each artist must submit a separate application with $25 application fee, and appropriate percentage of the booth fee. Each artist must send four jpegs as described on this page (“materials for juror review”). If one artist in a shared booth is not accepted in the show, the others in the booth are responsible for the entire booth fee—no exceptions.

Materials for juror review
- Email to jury.clothesline@mag.rochester.edu no more than three jpeg images which show the style and quality of your current work plus one recent jpeg image of your current booth display which shows the overall presentation and variety of the work you plan to exhibit.
- Name the jpegs in this sequence, substituting your last name: lastname1, lastname2, lastname3, lastnamebooth
- Include with your application a brief description (25 words) of your work, materials and technique.
- If you are submitting work in two categories, submit separate images and descriptions for each. You may exhibit work only in categories that have been reviewed and accepted by the jurors.
- If you do not have a photo of your booth or have not exhibited at Clothesline, please submit a photo showing all your work together. We would like to see the scope of your work, how much you have, and how it would potentially look when exhibited.
