2012 SPRING
2012 SUMMER

Welcome to the Memorial Art Gallery's all-day art camp! This is our 14th year of offering Art Day School, a fun and high-quality art education program for children 7–13. At Art Day School, kids can get dirty and be creative. Each day or week has an overall theme with two related classes and a variety of projects. Our classes are held in a studio setting where talented artist instructors challenge, instruct and provide positive feedback—allowing your child to develop as an artist. Children are closely supervised and enjoy a lunch/recreation break and two snack/stretch breaks each day.

Art Day School provides kids with the teachers, materials, time and the inspiration they need to create artwork they are proud to show. And with six hours of instruction per day, a fully-stocked supply closet and the resources of an outstanding art museum, the artwork tends to be impressive.

FAQs

How are classes divided?

When you register we assign your child to one of two groups based on age and class dynamics. In most cases, the junior group is ages 7–9 and the senior group 10–13. Each group enjoys a morning class with one of the day's two teachers and an afternoon class with the other.

Can I sign up my child for morning/afternoon only, or for individual days during the summer?

No, Art Day School is by the full week in the summer because each day consists of interrelated classes with a common theme, and each session's projects take the full week to complete. In summer, however, we do offer some morning and afternoon classes for kids in two-week sessions; see our Spring-Summer brochure (available after February 14 at mag.rochester.edu/creativeworkshop).

When does the day begin and end?

Instruction begins at 9 am and ends at 4:30 pm, but you may drop off your child as early as 8:30 am and pick up as late as 5 pm. There is no extra charge for this supervised precare/aftercare.

Can I sign up my child who will not yet be seven...but is an "exceptional" six-year-old?

We're sorry, but we cannot accommodate six-year-olds in the Art Day School program. Please see our Spring/Summer brochure for half-day options for children under seven.

What do kids do during breaks?

Twice each day (morning and afternoon), children are given breaks to walk, stretch, relax and enjoy a snack brought from home. During the supervised recreation break (before the afternoon class), children may choose to relax and read or draw or be actively involved in games or other physical activities (indoor or outdoor, depending on the weather).

Again this summer, we may take some walking field trips during our breaks to explore something fun in the Neighborhood of the Arts.

Do you provide lunch?

No, students should bring a lunch and a drink (in a non-glass container, please) from home. No refrigeration is provided.

Do you provide snack?

No, students should bring two snacks from home. During breaks, they will get water and a chance to stretch or walk but will only eat a snack if you send it from home. We recommend that snacks be packed separately from lunches, so that your child is not tempted to eat lunch at snack time.

Will I receive a registration confirmation?

When you register your child you will receive a confirmation/receipt with tax ID # via email or US mail.
