

OPPORTUNITY FOR CURRENT COLLEGE STUDENTS
BURNE GALLERY INTERNSHIPS IN THE MEMORIAL ART GALLERY'S CREATIVE WORKSHOP
AVAILABLE FOR FALL 2015, WINTER 2016, AND SPRING 2016

The Creative Workshop at the Memorial Art Gallery is looking for three volunteer interns, ideally currently enrolled in an art, art education, art history, museum studies or art-related local college program. These interns will work between 5- 15 hours a week (flexible hours, often Saturdays , sometimes Mondays or Fridays, sometimes evenings) to help promote, organize, design, install and de-install two exhibits each in the Lucy Burne Gallery and to assist with collaborative museum education projects. .

The Creative Workshop's brochure is here <http://mag.rochester.edu/creativeworkshop>. Exhibitions will feature the artwork of Creative Workshop students who submit artwork.

This internship experience offers a motivated intern the opportunity to make curatorial decisions and learn proper hanging methods while working within a busy and creative museum environment. Shows scheduled for the 2015/2016 season include: several adult student shows, two children's show, a collaborative exhibition of work from a current museum/school program and a Faculty show.

While designed as a non-credit internship, students in the past have earned credit for similar experiences. I would supervise the intern, keeping a keen eye on balancing the educational goals and needs of the student with our busy program, and working to introduce her/him to new ideas, people and projects when appropriate.

We hope to have a Fall intern identified by September 18, 2015. This internship is flexible but follows our Fall session from September 26 to December 5. FALL INTERNSHIP APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 14, 2015.

We hope to have a Winter intern identified by December 10, 2015. Again, this internship is somewhat flexible, but should begin around December 10 and last until April or May 2016.
WINTER APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL DECEMBER 5, 2015

We hope to have a Spring intern identified by January 12, 2016. Again, this internship is somewhat flexible, but should begin around March 1 and last until May or June 2016.
SPRING APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED UNTIL DECEMBER 5, 2015

In the past interns have written blog entries as part of their exhibitions, these are a great way to see what has been learned:

Summer intern Melis Schildkraut (Cornell University student), co-curated The Summer 2014 Adult student show <http://blogs.rochester.edu/MAG/?p=11332>

Interested students should fill out the attached internship application and return it (as soon as possible) to rbaldanza@mag.rochester.edu attention Burne Gallery Intern. Applications can also be sent to Mary Ann Monley, mmonley@mag.rochester.edu
