This is our tenth year of offering Art Day School, a fun and high quality art education program for children 7–13. This year’s Art Day School runs for seven weeks starting June 30 and ending August 29.

Each day at Art Day School we’ll explore different painting, drawing, fiber and sculptural materials. Each week has an overall theme, with two related classes allowing for a variety of projects.

In a studio setting, a few yards away from masterpieces hanging in the Gallery, talented artist instructors challenge, instruct and help your child to develop as an artist. With three hours of instruction in each studio, a fully stocked supply closet and the resources of a world-class museum, the projects kids make at Art Day School are impressive. Children are closely supervised and given two snacks daily.

Art Day School provides the teachers, materials, time and inspiration that kids need to create art.

Summer Art Day School 2008 Class Descriptions

Please note that children enrolled in a week of Art Day School take both classes below listed for that week.

WEEK 1 (JUNE 30–JULY 3):
Materials and Imagination
30865 Class code (ages 7–9)
30866 Class code (ages 10–13)

Paper Possibilities:
Making Art with Exotic Paper
Warren Mianecke

Using origami paper, textured paper, bark paper, metallic paper, holographic paper and more, you’ll make intricate paper mosaics, hanging sculptures and 3-D paper dioramas. Students in this focused, very creative week will have a ball using all sorts of cool papers in creative ways.

At the Beach
Lisa Myers

Salty, sandy, breezy and majestic—the seashore calls to us every summer. Sometimes we can go, but we can always dream. Use your imagination to move from school to summer in this fun beach-themed class. See how artists have captured the ocean and make your own sculptures, paintings, collages and sand-art souvenirs.

WEEK 2 (JULY 7–11):
Drawing and Color
30867 Class code (ages 7–9)
30868 Class code (ages 10–13)

Color Studio
Heather Garrand

Sure, we all know our reds from our blues but artists are always experimenting with tints and shades, color harmonies, and color interactions. In this fun class, you’ll make large paintings and small studies as you learn how colors work together and how to build your own favorite color palette. We’ll look for color outside, in the Gallery and in the work of artists throughout history.

Sketching Safari: Drawing Adventure
McNevin Hayes

Become a sketch-hunter, drawing and painting your own impressions and ideas based on the things you see in the Gallery’s permanent collection and everywhere else. You’ll get better at drawing quickly and accurately and better at drawing things you think are too hard to draw. We’ll also do our share of painting, using color (and all sorts of innovative materials) to bring out the best of our drawings.

WEEK 3 (JULY 28–AUGUST 1):
Art and Performance
30869 Class code (ages 7–9)
30870 Class code (ages 10–13)

Puppet Making and Performance
Paulette Davis

Create your own amazing characters as you learn some traditional cool new puppet making techniques (including hand, found object and jointed puppets). You’ll come away with a new friend that you (literally) made yourself. This class concludes with a creative performance.

The Artist’s Crayon is a Pastel
Shelly Patterson

Most artists (Leonardo da Vinci or Vincent van Gogh or Georgia O’Keeffe or…you!) start with drawing. The focus in this class is improving our drawing skills as we learn more about the great artists of the past and experiment with dry materials like pencil, charcoal and colorful pastels. Expect some drawing in the Gallery this week.

WEEK 4 (AUGUST 4–AUGUST 8):
Art in History and Process
30871 Class code (ages 7–9)
30872 Class code (ages 10–13)

Stupendous Sculpture Studio
Matt Crane

Budding sculptors will use wood, clay, paper, [stuff other people might call] junk and wire to make amazing sculptures. We’ll create animals, people and abstract work utilizing elements and principles of design, drawing inspiration from sculptures in the Gallery. You will learn to think in three dimensions while you have a lot of fun.

Into the Past with a Paintbrush
Lisa Myers

In this imaginative week, we’ll time-travel to different moments in history through our own creative projects. Inspired by the artist in the Gallery, we’ll make paintings and drawings that are much more fun than old stuffy history.

WEEK 5 (AUGUST 11–15):
Using Fibers and Painting Materials Inventively
30873 Class code (ages 7–9)
30874 Class code (ages 10–13)

Bags, Beads, and Braids
Mimi Smith

Weave it and believe it! Learn more about fibers and how to make everything from belts to bags to woven pouches. If you like to make things with your hands, strings and yarn and beads you will love finger weaving, lots of braiding, and bead work this week.

Finished projects include bead mosaics, finger woven pouches, dyed yarn woven into small pictures, and much more.

Not Your Average Paintings!
Lisa Myers

Paintings on plaster, paper and fabric, as well as with strings and other things, will test your ideas of what makes a painting. You’ll learn more about brushes and colors and how to paint in a bunch of different ways, plus you’ll have plenty of good messy fun. We’ll be inspired by paintings in the Gallery.

WEEK 6 (AUGUST 18–22):
Form and Content: Bookmaking and Multiples
30875 Class code (ages 7–9)
30876 Class code (ages 10–13)

Bookmaking
teacher TBA

Explore the ways artists make and adapt book forms for telling stories, keeping sketchbooks and communicating ideas in words and pictures.

Printmaking
Jessica Furber

Why make one piece of art when you can make more? Explore and create as you learn the basic techniques of printmaking using stamps, stencils, and plates to make editions of your own amazing prints. Make one, two, three,… a bazillion prints to keep and trade and give as gifts!

WEEK 7 (AUGUST 25–29):
Imagination and Observation
30877 Class code (ages 7–9)
30878 Class code (ages 10–13)

Mythology and Monsters: Imaginative Drawing and Painting
Warren Mianecke

This class explores how artists in a wide range of world cultures use animals to tell stories. We’ll make imaginative drawings and paintings using all sorts of materials to create our own mythology and our own monsters.

Inspired by Outside
Heather Garrand

As summer nears an end, we will spend as much time out of doors as we can—drawing, painting and making sculpture en plein air (that’s French for in the open air). Learn the tricks artists use to set up and paint in the fresh outdoors!

* four-day week
