Once again, the Art Tours Committee of the Gallery Council is offering its travelers a day of discovery. Join us on Tuesday, May 10, 2016 when we visit the venues of fine arts artisans in New York State. We have planned a unique day of adventure and memories by viewing the beauty of Tiffany windows, learning about the art of garden and home décor pottery, exploring the production of Steuben glass and indulging ourselves at a Keuka Lake area winery.

We will make five stops as we travel by luxury coach along the Tiffany and Treasures Trail of the Western NY Finger Lakes. This fascinating tour will give our travelers a chance to personally interact with the artisans and do some shopping, as many of the crafted artifacts on view will be for sale. Beginning with a visit to the studio and gallery of none other than Max and Kitty Erlacher, producers of Steuben Glass, we will learn how Steuben Glass is made. This is sure to be one of the highlights of the day. We will visit Antiques at the Establishment where we will view original Tiffany stained glass windows in an 1868 church and browse the antiques enterprise. Later in the day, we will visit a church where the entire sanctuary was designed and built by Louis Comfort Tiffany. For a change of pace, we will visit Golf Creek Pottery in Bath, NY. Here you will see handmade, frost proof garden pottery and botanically inspired jewelry.

And of course, what is a trip to the Finger Lakes without a trip to a winery for lunch? Travelers will enjoy a lunch of fine cuisine followed by a wine tour. This tour involves walking on some uneven flooring and sometimes on gravel paths. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes and come prepared for inclement weather.
