Philadelphia Flower Show’s ARTiculture
March 4-5, 2014

Experience the combination of art and horticulture as the 185th Philadelphia Flower Show celebrates everyone from Michelangelo to Monet, Picasso to Pollock, da Vinci to Dali. The show-stopping central feature of the 2014 Philadelphia Flower Show will highlight modern artistic expression using plants to represent famous paintings and sculptures. To complement the flower show we’ll enjoy a special themed docent-led tour, “Flowers in Art” at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, followed by a delicious lunch at the museum’s award winning restaurant.

Our trip includes:

- A ticket for the Philadelphia Flower Show, open until 9 p.m.
- A one night stay at the historic Marriott Courtyard Downtown, 3 blocks from the flower show
- Museum entrance and docent led tour at the Philadelphia Museum of Art
- Lunch on Wednesday at the museum and breakfast snacks and afternoon snacks in the motor coach

We’ll depart MAG at 7:00 a.m. on March 4th by comfortable motor coach, arriving in Philadelphia by 12:00 p.m. Once we check into our hotel you’ll have until 9 p.m. to enjoy the flower show. There are many food options at the flower show or you may leave the show (and return later) to have dinner in one of the many excellent restaurants in the area or enjoy the fascinating food and shopping experiences at the Reading Terminal Market next to the hotel. On March 5th we’ll return to MAG by 6:30 p.m.

Activity Level: Moderate: you should be able to walk at least three city blocks and be able to walk/stand for several hours through the flower show.

Cost: The tour price is $398 for gallery members and $445 for non-members with proceeds to benefit the MAG. For single occupancy, add $98. The price includes transportation, one-night hotel stay, one lunch at Philadelphia Museum of Art, museum entrance and docent led tour, and flower show ticket.

Reservation deadline is February 1st. Reservations will be accepted by earliest payment received. The minimum number of travelers is 20, the maximum number 28. Cancellations must be in writing by February 1st for a full refund. After that date, a refund will only be possible if vacancies are filled.

Checks are payable to the Gallery Council of the MAG. Mail with the form below to:
