Black History Month Family Day
Sunday, February 28, 2010
Schedule

12:00-4:00 pm   Hands-on art activities for children
12:00-4:00 pm   Black History Month poster display by students in Urban League of Rochester Afterschool Academy
12:00-4:30 pm   Interactive installation art by artist and professor W. Michelle Harris
12:00-2:30 pm   African Diaspora: Past and Present – Educational displays of African cultures around the world
12:30-1:00 pm   Music and Dance performance by Sojourner House’s Dreamseeds
1 pm & 3 pm   Baroque organ presentations (25 minutes)
1:15-1:25 pm   Dance presentation by University of Rochester student group Indulgence
1:30-2:00 pm   Performance by Fifteenth Tabernacle Rochester A Capella Singers
2:30-3:00 pm   Traditional and contemporary African and Caribbean dance by FuturPointe Dance
1:00-1:45 pm   Guided tours of museum (meet at admission desk)
3:00-3:30 pm   Art talk by educator Delores Jackson-Radney on Jacob Lawrence’s Summer Street Scene in Harlem
3:30-4:00 pm   African and African American tales of culture and entertainment by storyteller Yvonne Koketso Ferreira
4:00-5:00 pm   Live music by Whitney Marchelle Quartet

This is a tentative schedule so details might change between now and February 26. Visit the website again for more updates.