HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH  Latino Traditions: Honoring Our Ancestors
Salute to Hispanic Elders Nomination Form

The Memorial Art Gallery will honor three Rochester Hispanic elders during Hispanic Heritage Family Day on September 17, 2006. The event is subtitled, Latino Traditions: Honoring Our Ancestors, and will for the first time feature awards in the following categories: award of distinction, arts, and community service. All nominees must be residents of Monroe County. Nominees for award of distinction must be 100 years of age or older. Nominees for arts and community service awards must be 78 years of age or older.

Name ________________________________________________________________
Address ________________________________________________________________
Zip Code ___________________________ Phone __________________________
Date of Birth ___________________________ Birth Place ______________________
Nominator’s Name ________________________________________________________________
Phone ___________________________ Email ___________________________

Please choose one recognition category below:

☐ Elder of distinction award for oldest Hispanic in the community. Must be 100 years of age or older.
☐ Greatest contribution to visual, performing or literary arts (musician, painter, writer, etc.) 78 years and older.
☐ Outstanding community service to an organization (church, school, neighborhood group, etc.) 78 years and older.

Use the space below to explain why the nominee you selected should be honored.

_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________________________

Send nomination form to Debora McDell, Memorial Art Gallery, 500 University Avenue, Rochester, NY 14607 or fax (585) 473-6266. Nomination forms must be received by August 28, 2006. Honorees will be contacted by September 4. For more information, call (585) 473-7720, ext. 3034

Sponsored by:

M&T Bank

Special thanks to Citibank for its support of this event. Citibank branches in Upstate New York are now part of M&T Bank.

Thank you also to Centro de Oro of the Ibero-American Action League, Inc.
LOOK INSIDE FOR INFO ABOUT HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH
FAMILY DAY — SEPTEMBER 17, 2006