

Black History Month Family Day
Memorial Art Gallery • 500 University Avenue
Sunday, February 26, 2017 • 12-5 pm

12:00-4:00 pm:

Hands-on art activities for children and adults with Eddie Davis III, Raul Ferreira and Naomi Smith

12:00-4:00 pm:

View art by winners of the Black Lives Matter at School Art Contest presented by Open Mic Rochester

12:30-4:00 pm:

Enjoy art by artist Luvon Sheppard and see art from his figurative style to abstract style

12:00-3:00 pm:

Visit community display tables and learn about the vast services that area organizations offer the community

12:30-12:45 pm:

Caribbean drumming by youth from Sojourner House's Dreamseeds program

1:30-2:30 pm:

Smooth jazz concert by The Jimmie Highsmith Jr. Band

2:00-5:00 pm:

Strike a pose with family and friends! Get a free souvenir photo, compliments of Burris Photography and Kodak Alaris

2:00-2:30 pm:

Family Fitness Fun Zuumba with Pearls Physique

2:30-3:00 pm:

Meet the Artist: A Conversation with Luvon Sheppard. Sheppard is an artist and professor at RIT's School of Art and Design

1 & 2 pm (Meet at Admission Desk in Vanden Brul Pavilion):

1 pm: Guided tour of the exhibition, Meleko Mokgosi: Pax Kaffraria

2 pm: Black History Month Tour with artist and educator Delores Jackson Radney

3:30-4:30 pm:

Performing Arts Showcase featuring Dunwoody Dance 5678, Alex Peña, Alicia Rosser, East Royal Step Team, and We All Write.