

Family Fun Day: Asian Pacific American Heritage Month
Memorial Art Gallery • 500 University Avenue • Sunday, May 7, 2017 • 12-5 pm

12:00-4:00 pm (Creative Workshop):

Art activities for children and adults featuring 3 classes led by Amy J. Fisher (Good Fortune Dragon Puppets), Suzanne Kolodziej (Diwali) and Hamamatsu Rochester Sister Cities Committee (Origami and Japanese Calligraphy)

12:00-3:00 pm: (Vanden Brul Pavilion):

Visit community display tables and learn about the vast services that area organizations offer the community.

12:00-2:30 pm: (M&T Bank Ballroom):

Visit international cultural displays representing a variety of Asian countries.

12:30-1:15 pm (Vanden Brul Pavilion):

Live music performance by Chinese Music Ensemble of Rochester

1 pm & 3 pm (Meet at Admission Desk in Vanden Brul Pavilion):

Guided tours of the collection

1:30-2:00 pm (Auditorium):

Asian tales by storyteller Eva Miller

2:00-2:25 pm (Ballroom):

Chinese Ribbon Dance Workshop with Chinese Dance Academy

2:00-2:30 pm (Vanden Brul Pavilion):

Indian Music with Ryan Carey and Alan Simon

2:00-5:00 pm (Vanden Brul Pavilion):

Souvenir Photos compliments of Bob Burriss Photography and Jeff Palma Photography

3:00-3:25 pm (Bausch & Lomb Parlor)

Taekwondo Workshop with Agape Black Belt Center

2:30-3:15 pm (Auditorium)

"Managing Cross Cultural Conundrums in a Global Economy" by Deepak Seth

3:30-4:30 pm (M&T Bank Ballroom):

Performing Arts Showcase featuring Agape Black Belt Center, Bharata School of Indian Music & Dance, Chinese Choral Society of Rochester, Chinese Dance Company, Filipino American Association of Rochester, and Laotian American Scholarship Foundation.