POWERFUL PERSPECTIVE: AN ESCHER INSPIRED DRAWING CLASS
54701 Five Wednesdays, 1:30–4:30 pm, November 2– December 7 (no class November 23) [taught by Joanne Barr]

New class! Be inspired by the artwork of M.C. Escher! This course combines thorough explanation of and practice in perspective drawing. You’ll learn and apply principals of one- and two-point perspective—the same techniques Escher used to achieve a sense of depth. As a class, we will view the exhibition M.C. Escher: Reality and Illusion (box above). No prior experience is needed!

You will need the following materials for this class:

- 2B pencil
- Box of 12 colored pencils, including black and white
- 24” plastic transparent grid ruler
- 12” plastic transparent grid ruler
- 6 sheets 17” x 22” one inch 4x4 cross section graph paper
- Roll of masking tape
- 4 sheets tracing paper (about 9”x12” or larger)
- One black sharpie marker

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you soon!
