M.C. Escher: Reality and Illusion

Explore the special exhibition, M.C. Escher: Reality and Illusion, through the eyes of artists and mathematicians. Experiment with the “finger exercises,” as Escher called his early realistic landscapes, and the “brain gymnastics” of his later more complex works.

Art, Math, Classroom: K-12.

JANUARY 18, 2017

Drawing in the Gallery; Printing in the Classroom

Investigate new possibilities of expression in an afternoon of collaborative creativity. Artist Elizabeth King Durand will lead this studio art program focusing on artwork in the permanent collection and in the exhibition M.C. Escher: Reality and Illusion. Art: K-12.

FEBRUARY 8, 2017

Sights and Sounds: The Interplay of Music and the Visual Arts

Explore MAG’s collection to find artworks with authentic connections to the history and performance of music. Area teachers will demonstrate activities and resources for classroom use. Art, Music: K-12.

MARCH 1, 2017

History’s Afterlife: The Story and the Storyteller.

Come experience the special exhibit, Pax Kaffraria, Meleko Mokgosi’s mural sized narratives that explore southern Africa’s politics, history, and culture and the complexity of the post-colonial experience. Art, SS: 6-12.

APRIL 12, 2017

Art Jump Treasure Hunt: A Reflection on Artwork and Inspiration

Pittsford Central School District teachers will share their new curriculum integrating personal reflection into the viewing process. Systematically guiding reflection enriches students’ ability to observe, critique and understand works of art. Art: K-12.

A Creative Workshop artist will lead an afternoon of figure drawing using the many beautiful works in the MAG collection as well as the monumental figures by Meleko Mokgosi in the exhibition Pax Kaffraria. Art: K-12.
