Drawing Skills, ages 8-12, 9 Saturdays 9:00- 10:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Ben Leyer]

You will learn to draw what you see with better accuracy, stronger design, and impressive skills. Class includes fun exercises, drawing challenges, and one-on-one instruction.

Clay Creations, ages 7-9, 9 Saturdays 9:00- 10:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Linda DelMonte]

Clay Creations, ages 7-9, 9 Saturdays 11am- 12:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Linda DelMonte]

This is a fun, productive studio class for kids who like to get their hands dirty. Clay is coiled into big vases, formed into tall creatures, and made into projects based on themes and children's imaginations. Kids learn how to slip and score, what bisque is, and how projects are glazed and fired.

Cartooning, ages 8-12, 9 Saturdays 11am- 12:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Ben Leyer]

Drawing and cartooning are naturally funny and empowering ways for kids to express themselves. This class includes instruction on creating original characters, settings and funny situations. Kids draw in pencil, colored pencil and ink and learn to make increasingly complex comics and cartoons.

Bravery in Bold Color, ages 9-12, 9 Saturdays 11am- 12:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Warren Mianecke]

Finding inspiration in facts and legends of heroes and heroines throughout world history, students will draw and paint, expressive action portraits. Children will create exciting depictions of adventurous, exceptional people using pencil, ink, markers, watercolor, acrylics and metallic paints. The class will visit the Gallery throughout the class to view artworks depicting the bravery of people both ordinary and extraordinary.

Assembling your Narrative, ages 13-15, 9 Saturdays 1:30- 3:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Warren Mianecke]

Young artists will create and develop original characters and illustrate their stories in the style of graphic novels. Focus will include establishing a mood, creating a setting, choosing a color palette and depicting various points of view. We will use pencil, marker, ink and watercolor. Students will be encouraged to consider the increasingly popular "slice-of-life" genre, which features realistic characters and situations presented in a simplified, expressive and colorful style. The class will include trips to the Gallery to view the ways in which various artists inform the viewer about the people and places in their drawings, paintings and prints.

Drawing and Painting Teen Studio, ages 13-17, 6 Saturdays 1:30- 3:30am, Oct. 2- Nov. 6 [taught by Ben Leyer] see next page

This class is a great place to sharpen your drawing and painting skills. We will make several painting projects and build observational drawing and painting skills. Some drawing will happen in the museum and on the gallery's grounds.

Drawing & Painting Teen Studio on Zoom ages 13-17, 6 Saturdays 11am- 12:30am, Oct. 9- Nov. 13 [taught by Tamia Alston-Ward] Learn how to better improve your painting and drawing skills by using elements of imagination and observation to our sketchbooks. You will also make original drawings and paintings suitable for a portfolio.

Kids Create Dates ages 4- 14, Saturdays 1-3pm, Sept. 25- November 20 [taught by Sara Blake]

These drop in kids art activities are designed to be fun. Kids' projects are different each week.
