The Memorial Art Gallery's Fine Craft Show is presented by the Gallery Council to promote contemporary American craft and to introduce the public to the artists and their work. Again this year, the exhibition and sale will feature 40+ premier craft masters. Proceeds from this event support education, art acquisitions, programs and exhibitions at the Gallery.

Location

Memorial Art Gallery (Cutler Union building)
500 University Avenue, Rochester, New York 14607-1484

Juror

To be announced.

Eligibility

All artists who submit an application with the non-refundable $35 entry fee by the April 1 deadline will be included in the jury process.

Media include ceramics, basketry, fiber, glass, jewelry, leather, paper, metal, mixed media, wearable art and wood in limited edition or one-of-a-kind works.

Booth Information

The booth dimensions are 10 x 10 feet, and the fee is $525. We do not offer double booths.

All booths have an electrical outlet with 10 amps, capable of supporting 1000 watts.

Entry instructions

Each applicant must submit:

- Check for $35 payable to The Memorial Art Gallery
- Completed application (part 2 of this form) with written description of work
- Three digital (JPEG) images representing the work that will be offered for sale. These will be used for jurying and for our program book. Each image should be clearly marked with your name, category, dimensions, materials and price, and emailed to jury.finecraftshow@mag.rochester.edu
- A digital (JPEG) image of your current booth layout, emailed to jury.finecraftshow@mag.rochester.edu

Timeline

April 1: Last day to apply
May 30: Notification of juror's decision
September 5: Notification of booth assignments

Housing

Special arrangements may be made to house out-of-town artists (at no cost) in the homes of Gallery Council members. Special rates will also be available for our exhibitors at area hotels.
