LISTEN. LOOK. LEARN.
Lectures on Art, Ideas and Culture

JED PERL  MARCH 29

DR. ALEXANDER NEMEROV  APRIL 1

WALTER KULASH  MAY 15

Robert Hughes has written of New Art City that “there is no account of 20th-century art in that fabled powerhouse of culture, New York, that comes anywhere near this astonishing book. Jed Perl has seen and digested everything: New Art City is the deep creative work of a decade and more. I found it enthralling.”

This lecture is cosponsored by the Memorial Art Gallery, Print Club of Rochester and Rochester Institute of Technology.

Admission

- $10 general admission
- $8 MAG members, Print Club of Rochester members and U of R and RIT faculty
- $5 college students with ID
- $3 U of R and RIT students with ID

Tickets available at MAG beginning March 22 during gallery hours. Seating is limited.

Photograph of Jed Perl by Marion Ettinger.
Alexander Nemerov speaks on Edward Hopper’s painting, Ground Swell, which is in the collection of the Corcoran Gallery of Art. Nemerov is a professor in Yale University’s art history department where he teaches and writes on American visual culture from the 18th century to the 1960s. He is author of three books – Icons of Grief: Val Lewton’s Home Front Pictures, The Body of Raphaelle Peale: Still Life and Selfhood, 1812–1824 and Frederic Remington and Turn-of-the-Century America. Professor Nemerov’s current project is a book on a single night’s performance of Macbeth during Abraham Lincoln’s presidency.

This lecture is part of an ongoing series sponsored by the Dr. Robert Lewis Berg and Florence Foster Berg Fund.

---

Admission

Admission is free and includes admission to the exhibition, Natura Morta: Still Life Painting and the Medici Collections, which opens April 1.

Seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

---

THE ROAD AHEAD: HOW TRANSPORTATION CAN DRIVE SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES

MAY 15, 7:00 PM

Walter Kulash speaks in general on transportation and sustainable communities and in particular on Rochester’s Inner Loop. Kulash is a principal and senior traffic engineer with the Orlando-based community-planning firm of Glatting Jackson Kercher Anglin Lopez Rinehart, Inc. Since the early 1990s, Kulash has specialized in the rapidly emerging field of “livable traffic” design in which traffic performance is balanced against other desired qualities of the street, such as its value as an “address,” its retail friendliness, and its role as a premier public space of the community.

This lecture is cosponsored by the American Institute of Architects-Rochester Chapter, Memorial Art Gallery and Rochester Regional Community Design Center and presented by Preferred Care.

ADMISSION

$10 in advance at MAG, AIA, RRCDC, Parkleigh and Wegmans

$15 at the door

Seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.