Lakeshore Record Exchange and Memorial Art Gallery to present special concert appearance and presentation by Severed Heads

Wednesday September 20th, 2017

Rochester, NY September 14, 2017 - Lakeshore Record Exchange and Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester are proud to announce a special concert appearance by Severed Heads on Wednesday September 20th, 2017 at Memorial Art Gallery, 500 University Avenue in downtown Rochester, NY.

Severed Heads features Australian electronic & multimedia artist Tom Ellard who will perform live at the MAG's Ballroom. Known for their 80s and 90s underground club hits, "Dead Eyes Opened", "Greater Reward", "Hot With Fleas" and "All Saints Day", the band will perform a live music set followed by a discussion and video presentation lead by Tom Ellard.

Tom has worked as a full time lecturer at the University of New South Wales. He won an ARIA award (Australian Recording Industry Association) for his soundtrack to the film "The Illustrated Family Doctor". In 2013 he was commissioned by Adelaide Festival of Arts to create a 3D video game. He's written music for TV commercials all over the world and has had multiple art gallery shows featuring his music and video work.

Tickets for this event are $20 in advance $25 at the door. The show is 18 and over and tickets are available at the Memorial Art Gallery's Information Desk and online at <http://alternativemusic.com>. Parking is FREE at the Museum.

MAG doors open at 8 and the shows starts at 9.
