

G. Milton Wing
Lecture Series

November 2016

The Mathematics of M. C. Escher

WITH GUEST LECTURER Doris Schattschneider

Professor Emerita of Mathematics at Moravian College in Pennsylvania

SPONSORED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Doris Schattschneider

Professor Emerita of Mathematics at Moravian
College in Pennsylvania

Mathematics and the Art of M. C. Escher

PUBLIC LECTURE Sunday, November 20, 1 p.m.
Memorial Art Gallery

Lessons in Duality and Symmetry from M. C. Escher

PUBLIC LECTURE Monday, November 21, 5 p.m.
202 Gavett Hall

Escher's Combinatorial Patterns

Tuesday, November 22, 3:30 p.m.
1106A Hylan Building

Lecture Series Sponsored by the Department of Mathematics

ORGANIZED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE EXHIBITION

M. C. Escher: Reality and Illusion

November 13, 2016–
January 29, 2017
Grand Gallery,
Memorial Art Gallery
500 University Avenue,
Rochester, New York 14607

Drawn from the world's second-largest private collection of Escher's work, Reality and Illusion includes 120 Escher works: from early figure drawings and lesser-known book illustrations to detailed Italian landscapes and the "tessellations" for which he became famous.

