inspired: teen show

Calling all teen artists! Are you a junior or senior in high school ready to put your work out there? Now is your opportunity to shine with the inspired: teen show hosted by the Creative Workshop at the Memorial Art Gallery. This show is open to all 11th and 12th graders (or equivalent home schooling) in Monroe County. This is a show about inspiration. Entries will be judged on these criteria: originality, craftsmanship, and overall impact. We are accepting up to two works from each individual student. We ask that all submitted work be in a frame (though professional framing is not needed). Limited gallery space is available, so make sure you get your artwork submitted soon. Submissions will be accepted between November 20th and January 18th 2020 by 4:00 PM. Since this is a teen show in a family setting, please refrain from sending any art with imagery such as guns, violence, or offensive nudity.

The exhibit will be on view in the Lucy Burne Gallery at MAG from January 23rd to February 8th. We will be hosting a reception on Thursday, January 30th in the evening from 4:30 to 6:00 PM. We’re all very excited to show your work and look forward to your submissions!
