

Summer 2020 ART CAMPS

Welcome to the Creative Workshop's art camps!

Now in its 22nd year, our fabulous all-day Art Day Camp (ADC) is designed for children ages 6–12 during school breaks. They enjoy high quality (and very fun) art projects, visits to the museum to see original works of art, lunch breaks and daily recreation breaks. Two age groupings—6–8 (junior) and 9–12 (senior)—allow kids to learn about art techniques, strategies, and materials as they make art they can be proud of.

Again this year, we're also offering Clay Camps for both age groups in July, along with two Art & Writing camps offered in collaboration with Writers & Books.

Please note: If your child enrolled in Art Day Camp in February or April 2020, you do NOT need to fill out the forms on pages 6–7.

Here's what parents are saying about our camps:

My child loved...

"...creating and drawing his own superhero."

"...walking through the Gallery. All of it!"

"...the different daily creations."

"...everything! She said it was super fun."

"I think the world of your programming, the inclusive nature of the environment, the access to quality materials and the diversity of the teachers and attendees."

"Aria loved the experience of her summer art camp, A-Z. The best indicator is that she got up in the a.m. before the alarm because she knew she was coming to the MAG!!!"

"The teachers kept them busy so they didn't get bored—there was always something fun for them to do."

General FAQs

How are classes divided? When you register we assign your child to one of two groups based on age and class dynamics. In most cases, the junior group is ages 6–8 and the senior group 9–12. For Art Day Camp, each group enjoys a morning class with one of the day's teachers and an afternoon class with another.

Can I sign up my child for morning/afternoon only?

No, Art Day Camp, Clay Camp, and Writers & Books collaborations are by the week only because each day consists of interrelated classes with a common theme. Interested in half day summer classes for kids? Watch for our full summer brochure, published in mid May.

When does the day begin and end? Instruction begins at 9 am and ends at 4:30 pm, but you may drop off your child as early as 8:30 am and pick up as late as 5 pm. There is no extra charge for this supervised precare/aftercare.

What do kids do during classes? Our curriculum emphasizes artistic skill-building (especially drawing, painting, and sculpture) through creative projects. Instructors plan flexible lessons, give thorough demonstrations, and work individually with students to help them realize their own artistic strengths. Children look at and make confident, ambitious and exciting art projects.

Do you provide lunch? No, students should bring a lunch and a drink (in a non-glass container, please) from home. No refrigeration is provided. Labeling your child's lunch and leak-proof beverage container helps us avoid confusion and helps your child locate their meal.

Do you provide snack? No, students should bring two snacks from home. During breaks, they will get water and a chance to stretch or walk but will only eat a snack if you send it from home. We recommend that snacks be packed separately from lunches, so that your child is not tempted to eat lunch at snack time.

What do kids do during breaks? Twice a day (morning and afternoon), children get breaks to walk, stretch, relax and enjoy a snack brought from home. During the supervised hour-long recreation break (before the afternoon class), children may choose to relax and read or draw or be actively involved in games or other physical activities (indoor or outdoor, depending on the weather). Please be sure your child is dressed for the weather. No flip flops or jelly shoes, please.

Will I receive a registration confirmation? Upon request we will provide a confirmation/receipt with tax ID # via email or US mail.

More questions? Contact Emily Fitzgibbon at 585.276.8959 (efitzgibbons@mag.rochester.edu) or Rachael Baldanza at 585.276.8956 (rbaldanza@mag.rochester.edu).

How our camps use the museum

We bring the campers into the museum often. Using strategies designed to teach kids to look more carefully, we help them learn to make creative decisions based on other artists' work and realize some of the many things we all have in common.

Please let us know if your child is sensitive about something we may see in the museum (for example, Sally is afraid of mummies).

ADC SUMMER 2020

At Summer Art Day Camp, kids ages 6–12 can explore cool artworks from different cultures and creators. We divide kids by age (JUNIORS 6–8 and SENIORS 9–12). Register by the week using our online system at mag.rochester.edu/classes.

CLAY CAMPS SUMMER 2020

CLAY & CREATIVITY (ages 7–9)

We'll make several fun, clay-based projects and have lots of chances to create using other artist media. We'll be inspired by nature and the summer season!

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 6–10 {17SU20}

[taught by Lisa Pelletier-Myers & Casey Cardillo]

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 13–17 {18SU20}

[taught by Lisa Pelletier-Myers & Taylor Kennedy]

CLAY & MORE (ages 10–14)

Experience working with clay through hand building and on the wheel. This camp is a great way to start with pottery and mixed-media. We'll create 3-D works of art inspired by work in the museum.

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 6–10 {19SU20}

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 13–17 {20SU20}

[both sessions taught by Rose Van Tyne & Jason Ferguson]

Clay FAQs

For general info about our camps, see page 2.

Can I sign up my child by the day for Clay Camp?

No, Clay Camp is by the week only because clay projects need time to be created, dried, fired to bisque, glazed or painted, and if glazed, fired again.

I'm interested in half-day summer classes for my child. Will you be offering these?

Yes. Information on half-day classes will be released mid May, with registration beginning May 18.

How should my child dress for Clay Camp?

The clay used for our camps is a red earthenware, which can stain clothing. We recommend campers wear messy T-shirts, jeans, sneakers or closed toed shoes. No open toed shoes.

Will my child be working on the wheel?

Clay & More students will have at least one experience on the potter's wheel. Students younger than 10 cannot work safely on the wheel.

ART & WRITING CAMPS

SUMMER 2020 offered in collaboration with Writers & Books

The Creative Workshop is partnering with Writers & Books for these all-day camps taught by two master teaching artists—a writer and a visual artist. In both, students will spend mornings at Writers & Books (just up the street from MAG) and afternoons at the Creative Workshop and be walked by teaching assistants between sites during the lunch hour. This camp runs from 9 am to 4 pm.

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 13–17:

YOUR INCREDIBLE ILLUSTRATED STORY (ages 10–13)

[taught by Ben Leyer & Tracy Cretelle]

What do you want to say? Create your own fantastically illustrated and self-written story. You'll learn the tools of the trade—how to illustrate an idea, choose a fitting style, and draw things you don't know how to draw—and learn the basics of plot, character, and setting, all using juicy language. We'll also spend time drawing in the museum. At the end of the week, you'll take home your own comic and story book.

{22SU20}

MONDAY–FRIDAY, JULY 20–24:

TELLING TALES (ages 7–9)

[taught by Faith Gruver & Sarah Brown]

Create your own characters and explore your own story ideas while learning at the hand of master teaching artists: a writer and a visual artist. You'll learn the tools of the trade—how to illustrate an idea, choose a fitting style, and draw things you don't know how to draw—and learn the basics of plot, character, and setting, all using juicy language. At the end of the week, you'll take home your own comic or story book and illustrated mini stories. We'll also spend time drawing in the museum.
