

Suggested for the entire family!

Celebrating Asian American Artists

Asian American artists bring their life experiences and talents to new interpretations of art, storytelling, and history. MAG is proud to have in its collection works by the following artists of five different Asian heritages.

Hung Liu (American, born China 1948–)

Click the image above to learn more!

Hung Liu, Three Fujins, 1995. Oil on canvas. G Gift of Gerald and Ellen Sigal and Marion Stratton Gould Fund, 2015.10. © Hung Liu

500 University Ave • Rochester, NY 14607 • 585.276.8900 • mag.rochester.edu

Here are artists with roots in Korea, Japan, India, and Vietnam.
Click the images to learn more!

Nam June Paik
(American, born Korea
1932–2006)

Isamu Noguchi
(American, 1904–1988)

Chitra Ganesh
(American, 1975–)

Click HERE for the entire body of work in Sultana's Dream.

Binh Dahn
(American,
born Vietnam 1977–)

Nam June Paik, Bakelite Robot, 2002. Mixed media. Maurice R. and Maxine B. Forman Fund, Marion Stratton Gould Fund, Clara and Edwin Strassenburgh Fund, Lyman K. and Eleanore B. Stuart Endowment Fund, and Thelma M. Knapp Fund, 2018.34; Isamu Noguchi, Calligraphics, 1957. Cast iron, wood and rope. R. T. Miller Fund, 1960.2.; Chitra Ganesh, Sultana's Dream: Chappals in the Grass, 2018. Linocut. June Alexander Memorial Fund, Joseph T. Simon Fund, and Thelma M. Knapp Fund, 2019.12.8; Binh Dahn, Found Portraits Collection: From the Cambodian Killing Fields at Tuol Sleng, 2003. Chlorophyll prints on leaves with resin. Marion Stratton Gould Fund, 2006.7. © the artists or their representatives

