Art History Adult Fall 2021 Class List

The Other Renaissance Women Artists 16th & 17th century 5 Wednesdays 1:30- 3pm, Sept. 29 – Oct.27 [taught by Roxana Aparicio-Wolfe]

Join us for a look spanning two centuries of women who, through relatively recent scholarship, have emerged from the shadows as professional, prolific, and influential artists during the Renaissance. Joining the ranks of recognized male artists of the period, we will examine their stories and subjects that stand as evidence of their agency, identity, and visual legacies. Artists discussed include: Lavinia Fontana, Elisabetta Sirani, Artemisia Gentileschi, Sofonisba Anguissola and Judith Leyster.

Modernism & 'The New Woman' 5 Wednesdays 1:30- 3pm, Nov. 3- Dec. 8 [taught by Roxana Aparicio-Wolfe]

Emerging out of social and cultural changes in the late 19th century, the 'New Woman' challenged conventional gender norms and bridged the Victorian era and the Modern world. Meet the artists who both embodied and shaped new visual perspectives for Modernism, including: Frances Benjamin Johnson, Alice Barber Stephens, Dorothea Tanning, Hannah Höch, Florine Stettheimer, Georgia O'Keeffe, Romaine Brooks, Suzanne Valadon, Sonia Delaunay, Claude Cahun, Meta Vaux Warrick Fuller, and Frida Kahlo.

History of Prints & Printmaking on Zoom, 7 Wednesdays 11am- 12:30pm, Sept. 15- Nov. 3 (no class Oct. 13) [taught by Lucy Durkin] taught on ZOOM

Designed to complement the spectacular A Sense of Place and Renaissance Impressions exhibitions, this course will explore the history of works of art on paper, one of the most influential and important means of communication throughout history. We will pay special attention to understanding the methods artists developed to create different effects, covering relief, intaglio, planographic and stencil processes, and the advent of digital printmaking.
