(NEW CLASS!) Finding inspiration in facts and legends of heroes and heroines throughout world history, students will draw and paint, expressive action portraits. Children will create exciting depictions of adventurous, exceptional people using pencil, ink, markers, watercolor, acrylics and metallic paints. The class will visit the Gallery throughout the class to view artworks depicting the bravery of people both ordinary and extraordinary.

Assembling your Narrative, ages 13-15, 9 Saturdays 1:30- 3:30am, Sept. 25- Nov. 20 [taught by Warren Mianecke]

Young artists will create and develop original characters and illustrate their stories in the style of graphic novels. Focus will include establishing a mood, creating a setting, choosing a color palette and depicting various points of view. We will use pencil, marker, ink and watercolor. Students will be encouraged to consider the increasingly popular "slice-of-life" genre, which features realistic characters and situations presented in a simplified, expressive and colorful style. The class will include trips to the Gallery to view the ways in which various artists inform the viewer about the people and places in their drawings, paintings and prints.

Drawing and Painting Teen Studio, ages 13-17, 6 Saturdays 1:30- 3:30am, Oct. 2- Nov. 6 [taught by Ben Leyer]
