Adult Art History Courses Winter 2022 At a Glance Class List

These adult classes in Art History will be offered in the Creative Workshop’s Winter 2022 session starting on or after January 10. This document lets you check classes at a glance. Please note, however that classes often register quickly so some classes here may be full. All registrations are done online.

A History of Protest Art, 6 Wednesdays 1:30- 3:00pm, Jan. 11 – Mar. 8 (no class Feb.22 ) [taught by Roxana Aparicio Wolfe] 65W22 meets in person at MAG

We will examine the role visual art has played in the political and cultural movements that helped define the nation over the last 100 years and advocate for change. From artists of the 20s shining a light on Jim Crow practices; the struggles for Civil Rights in the 50s and 60s; the Anti-War, American Indian, Chicano, and Feminist Movements of the 70s; the Guerilla Girls challenging exclusion in the art system and ACT UP’s grassroots campaigns in the face of the AIDS Crisis in the 80s and 90s; and present day issues including climate change and social justice.

Travel to Italian Renaissance Chapels via ZOOM, 6 Wednesdays 11:00am- 12:30pm, Jan. 26 – Mar. 2 [taught by Lucy Durkin] 66W22 meets online via ZOOM

Full of vivid imagery and complex ideas, the great fresco cycles of the Italian Renaissance tell wonderful stories that resound with every emotion humans feel. Stay warm and safe as we virtually tour over 200 years of magnificent paintings from Giotto's ground-breaking images in the Scrovegni Chapel in Padua, through the Brancacci and Tornabuoni Chapels in Florence, and, of course, the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.
